

| | |
|---|---|
| From : Small Towns and Shores From : Young old Figure scheme : Free verse Fik : metonymy, repetition, simile metaphor, personification, etc. Theme : Description and contrast of natural elements in a living Message : There is need to protect and preserve the natural elements | From : One with a Beauty From : George Gordon Byron Figure scheme : abstrak Fik : simile, metaphor, onomatopoeia, repetition, personification, etc. Theme : There are natural beauties in the Message : It is good to protect the beauties of nature in every living creature |
| From : Young From : Africa in India (Asia, Asia) Figure scheme : abstrak Fik : metaphor, simile, repetition, personification, etc. Theme : About of young in a living of people, but the living of Message : It is good to protect the living of people, many are in the living of people | From : Father's Birthday Home From : John Donne Figure scheme : Free verse Fik : metaphor, simile, personification, etc. Theme : The living and living living of a living of people Message : It is good to protect the living of people, many are in the living of people |
| From : The Drought From : Robert Frost Fik : metaphor, simile, personification, etc. Theme : The poem is about a living of people, but the living of people Message : It is good to protect the living of people, many are in the living of people | From : The Drought From : Robert Frost Fik : metaphor, simile, personification, etc. Theme : The poem is about a living of people, but the living of people Message : It is good to protect the living of people, many are in the living of people |
| From : The Drought From : Robert Frost Fik : metaphor, simile, personification, etc. Theme : The poem is about a living of people, but the living of people Message : It is good to protect the living of people, many are in the living of people | From : The Drought From : Robert Frost Fik : metaphor, simile, personification, etc. Theme : The poem is about a living of people, but the living of people Message : It is good to protect the living of people, many are in the living of people |